The Early New Testament Church

Evening Class

Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit The Early New Testament Church. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 2 2017

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, headed "Academic Misconduct". Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays." (See also the QTC Student Handbook) All essays should comply with these standards.

Information about this unit

Unit description

One writer has said that all Christians have within them something of a "restoration" mentality when it comes to "fixing" the church. i.e., we tend to feel that if we could just restore the church to the way that it used to be in NT days, everything would be all right. Well, I hope this unit helps you to understand that there were lots of problems within the early church and persecutions from without. I trust that you will find it exciting and interesting that despite these challenges the word continued to grow and spread. I pray this will encourage you to trust God as he continues to spread the word today, in the face of problems within the church and pressures from outside the church.

The first section of the unit focuses on the Acts of the Apostles and investigates the history, theology and features of the early church as it grew, expanded, and matured.

In the second section, students will examine in outline several other New Testament Writings (various Epistles and Revelation) not covered elsewhere in the course.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

The unit is a core unit in your degree. It is concerned not so much with critical issues as with enabling students to grasp a firm understanding of the development of the early church and of the contents, themes and theology of the various books of the New Testament.

This unit caters for students studying either of the following accredited units:

- NT302 The Early New Testament Church – a core module of the BTh/BMin/AssocDegTh/DipTh/DipMin.
- NT502 The Early New Testament Church – a core module of the MDiv/ GradDipDiv/ GradCertDiv.

Each of these units is a 4-credit point unit in its respective award.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

This is a core unit and as such there are no pre-requisites or co-requisites associated with it.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

The unit is taught over a 13-week semester on Monday evenings. There are three lectures each week, each of 50 minutes duration.

Please note that there are no lectures on the following Mondays: 24 July, 18 & 25 September, 2 October.

At Bachelor level a 4 cp unit is considered to require 6 – 8 hrs of time commitment per week. At MDiv level the expectation is 7-9 hours on average.

Students are required to attend all lectures, complete any set pre-reading and complete the assessment tasks by the due dates.

It is strongly advised that students read the set portions prior to the class, rather than after.

The unit timetable above indicates chapters in the textbooks for pre-reading. Students should read the chapters on the passage for the week from either Peterson or Schnabel, as well as the set pages from Carson & Moo and/or Barnett. The lectures are not designed to provide content that can be found in the textbook. The lectures will assume that the student has completed the pre-reading chapter(s). During the lecture, certain aspects will be emphasized and explained and discussion will be encouraged in order to seek to apply what has been learned to life and understanding.

NT302 Assessments (Monday Evening Class)

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Late Penalty Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the Assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late.

Your essays must also be within 10% of the required word limit and your ability to meet this requirement will also be taken into account in determining your mark. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

Guide to Assessments

All students are expected to read the guidelines for written assignments provided in the ACT Handbooks, available in the library or online. You should also read the relevant sections of the QTC Student Manual.

All written work for this course should conform to the guidelines of the SBL Handbook of Style (with the exception of Australian spelling conventions.).

All assessments should be in Word Doc format.

All Greek and Hebrew cited must be typed in a Unicode font; SBL BibLit is commended as one font covering Greek, Hebrew and Roman Unicode ranges, but is not required. It is freely available from the SBL website: <http://www.sbl-site.org/educational/biblicalfonts.aspx>

The Learning Resources listed in this outline provide a beginning point for research for assessments for this course; students are expected to engage with the works listed there, but are not limited to these resources. The literature on the gospels is massive, and you are encouraged to consult widely.

Do note carefully the number of words required for each assessment item, depending on whether you are enrolled for NT302 or NT502.

Assessment 1: Essay

This essay is designed to assess your ability to research an aspect of Acts or the letter of James and in the process weigh up the differing views of the scholars in the light of scripture. Your primary task is answering the question from the scripture. Please ensure the essay answers the question.

The essay must be in formal essay format. i.e. no dot points, good grammar, good paragraph and essay structure.

Your paper should include an abstract and bibliography in the usual format.

The bibliography will include 10-20 entries and will include a variety of viewpoints and recent scholarship where possible.

The essay must use the provided QTC coversheet as its first page and be submitted via Moodle in word doc format, using the file name convention specified.

Assessment 2: Exam

While the essay is designed to assess your ability to dig deeply into one topic, the exam is designed to assess your broad knowledge of the subject. Therefore, the questions will reflect this and your approach to study for the exam should reflect this. The best preparation is to know the lecture material, required reading, and the relevant scriptures.
