Information about this unit

Unit description

Old Testament Prophets and Writings (OT302/502) and Old Testament Foundations (OT301/501) form the foundation upon which all further study of the Old Testament builds. They are thus concerned not so much with the critical issues of Old Testament studies, as with the biblical history as it is recorded in the Old Testament. The study is undertaken in the light of the various ancient contexts of the biblical narrative, illustrated by modern archaeological findings.

Old Testament Prophets and Writings (OT302/502) covers the Prophetic books or Latter Prophets and the wisdom literature of the Old Testament and writings such as Chronicles, Ezra and Nehemiah.

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

As in OT301/501, the crucial element in the OT302/502 essay and exam is demonstrating that you have an excellent grasp of the primary texts in question. Of course, we do want you to augment your arguments and answers by demonstrating an awareness of the key issues in current and historic interpretation of these texts, but the bedrock of this course is a careful and nuanced reading of the texts themselves. The largest part of your answers then should be based on the text of the Biblical book you are discussing and its interpretation, and also articulating the overall concerns and strategies (the 'message') of the book itself.

Which questions should I choose to answer? Choose a part of the Bible that you are interested in or intrigued by! You will complete a better assessment/ exam answer if you are engaged!

In preparing for exams, please do remember that the exam is structured to test all the material covered in the unit.

In both exams and essays, make sure that you ANSWER THE QUESTION! Before you start to write, you may find it helpful to make sure that you can answer the question asked in a couple of sentences, and then take some time to make sure that your essay is structured appropriately.
