Old Testament Foundations

Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit Old Testament Foundations. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 1 2017

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.actheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, headed "Academic Misconduct". Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Undergraduate or Postgraduate Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays." (See also the QTC Student Handbook) All essays should comply with these standards.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

At QTC, all students studying towards the MDiv, GradDipDiv, BTh, BMin, DipTh, DipMin or Wordworks usually include this unit within their course. This unit provides a foundation for further advanced Old Testament study.

This unit is designed as a PRIMARY DOCUMENT unit; therefore the main objective is to ensure that students have a deep familiarity with the text of Genesis-2 Kings as a foundation for further study of the Old Testament.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

This is a core unit and there are no pre-requisites or co-requisites associated with it.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

This unit includes three hours of lectures per week throughout the semester of 13 weeks. It is expected that the biblical text to be covered is read at least once in advance of class. You will also be expected to read the relevant section of the course textbook (Dillard & Longman) after each class. Lectures will be supported where appropriate with lecture outlines.

Please note that all students are expected to read the books covered in their entirety at least three times during the semester.

This unit is worth 4 credit points. This means that throughout the semester BTh/BMin/AssocDegTh/DipTh/DipMin students and PCQ candidates' course students should be spending an average of 6–7 hours per week on this unit, including lectures. MDiv/GradDipDiv students should be spending an average of 7-8 hours per week, including the class time. If you find that you consistently have to spend more time than this on the unit, please speak with the unit coordinator as a matter of urgency.

Students are required to attend all lectures, complete any set pre-reading and complete all assessment tasks by the relevant due date.

OT301 Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Late Penalty Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the Assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late.

Your essays must also be within 10% of the required word limit and your ability to meet this requirement will also be taken into account in determining your mark. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

OT501 Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Late Penalty Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the Assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late.

Your essays must also be within 10% of the required word limit and your ability to meet this requirement will also be taken into account in determining your mark. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

ASSESSMENT TASK	DESCRIPTION
Essay 2500 words total 50% of final grade	2500 word essay selected from one of the following topics: 1. To what extent is it appropriate to treat Genesis 1-3 as the prologue to the Canon of Scripture? 2. What is the significance of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the book of Genesis? 3. What is the theological contribution of the book of Exodus to the Bible? 4. Compare and contrast Leviticus 19-26 and Deuteronomy 12-26. 5. Deuteronomy is presented as speeches given by Moses. How important is this for understanding the book?
2 Hour Exam 50% of final grade	Students must answer three from seven short answer questions and two from five essay questions. The short answer questions are worth 1/3 of the exam (17% of the unit), and the long questions are worth 2/3 of the exam (33% of the unit).

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

1. It is important to remember that these assessments are designed to test if you have grasped the basic shape and message of the part of the Bible you are considering (looking at the historical context, appreciating the kind of literature we are reading and how that works, and then how this part of the Bible fits into the whole flow of Scripture). We are not asking you to master the secondary literature on that particular book (or part of a book). Whilst in essays, some interaction with secondary literature (primarily commentaries, especially the introductory discussions) and longer dictionary articles is expected, the assessment will be marked first and foremost on the extent to which you display familiarity with and understanding of the biblical text. Where appropriate within your answers, you should seek to briefly make connections to your other theological studies, and also briefly indicate implications for Christian life and thought today.
2. Which questions should I choose to answer? Choose a part of the Bible that you are interested in or intrigued by! You will complete a better assessment/ exam answer if you are engaged!
3. In preparing for exams, please do remember that the exam is structured to test all the material covered in the course – the short questions will be drawn from Genesis – 2 Kings. However, the long questions will be limited to Joshua-2 Kings.
4. In both exams and essays, make sure that you ANSWER THE QUESTION! Before you start to write, you may find it helpful to make sure that you can answer the question asked in a couple of sentences, and then take some time to make sure that your essay is structured appropriately.
