SEMESTER 2 2018

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the ACT's Academic Misconduct Policy, as well as ACT Late Penalties Policy and Extensions Policy, all of which are available on the ACT website. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the relevant ACT Policies.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays in Coursework Units" (see also the QTC Student Handbook). All essays and assignments should comply with these standards.

- About 200–400 words of Hebrew vocabulary
- Grammatical issues that influence translation and the meaning of the text

Be able to:

- Apply grammatical discussions of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament
- Translate about three chapters of the Hebrew Old Testament into English
- Discuss translation issues that influence exegesis

Be in a position to:

- Continue translation of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament
- Identify the interplay between translation and interpretation
- Commence exegesis of the Hebrew text of the Old Testament

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

This course prepares students for a lifetime of studying the Old Testament in its original language, through completion of a first-year grammar and hands-on experience working through the complete Hebrew text of Ruth. Our aim is to build skills in original language exegesis through application of Hebrew grammar, increase of vocabulary, and the introduction of advanced topics and employment of intermediate level tools. Students will be encouraged to embrace the lifelong study of the Old Testament in Hebrew as an act of Christian discipleship, for the glory of Christ and the good of his church.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites
