Information about this unit

Unit description

Old Testament Prophets and Writings (OT302/502) covers the Prophetic Books or Latter Prophets and the Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament, together with writings such as Chronicles, Ezra and Nehemiah.

Old Testament Prophets and Writings (OT302D/502D) and Old Testament Foundations (OT301D/501D) form the foundation upon which all further study of the Old Testament builds. They are thus concerned not so much with the critical issues of Old Testament studies, as with the biblical history as it is recorded in the Old Testament. The study is undertaken in the light of the various ancient contexts of the biblical narrative, illustrated by modern archaeological findings.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

At QTC, all students studying towards the MDiv, GradCertDiv, GradDipDiv, BTh, BMin, DipTh, or DipMin include this unit within their course. This unit provides a foundation for further advanced Old Testament study.

This unit is designed as a PRIMARY DOCUMENT unit; therefore the main objective is to ensure that students have a deep familiarity with the text of Genesis-2 Kings as a foundation for further study of the Old Testament.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

This is a core unit and there are no pre-requisites or co-requisites associated with it.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

This unit is delivered in online mode, and organised in terms of learning activities for you to undertake each week.

Every week we will look at 1-3 topics (see Unit Timetable), with learning each week involving a combination of reading notes provided by the lecturer, listening to audio material from the lecturer, short readings from relevant books and articles, and short non-assessed exercises to get you thinking about and applying the material learnt.

Audio recordings and reading notes will normally be provided to you in brief sections, to help your learning to be more varied and enjoyable.

During most weeks of the course you will also participate briefly in discussion on the online forum for the unit, as indicated in the assessment section of this unit outline: further details on what is expected regarding online forum contributions will be provided in Week 1 of the Semester.

The unit will also involve the completion of three further assessments which are designed not only to assess your learning, but also to help you to deepen your understanding of the text.

It is expected that the biblical text to be covered is read at least once in advance of class. You will also be expected to read the relevant section of the course textbook (Dillard & Longman) after each class. Please note that all students are expected to read the biblical books covered in their entirety at least three times during the semester.

This unit is worth 4 credit points. This means that throughout the semester BTh/BMin/AssocDegTh/DipTh/DipMin students and PCQ candidates' course students should be spending an average of 6–7 hours per week on this unit, including lectures.

MDiv/GradDipDiv students should be spending an average of 7-8 hours per week, including the class time. If you find that you consistently have to spend more time than this on the unit, please speak with the unit coordinator as a matter of urgency.

Students are required to complete any set pre-reading, post-reading, ungraded exercises and all assessment tasks by the relevant due date.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, in accordance with the ACT Late Penalties Policy, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero. Where the assessment is a Take-Home Exam, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 6% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 7 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero.

Your submitted assessment items must also be within 10% of the required word limit. For example, for the 800-word Primary Document Study 1 below, your answer should be between 720 and 880 words. Please see the QTC Handbook for full details on what is included within your total word count. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

1. It is important to remember that these assessments are designed to test if you have grasped the basic shape and message of the part of the Bible you are considering (looking at the historical context, appreciating the kind of literature we are reading and how that works, and then how this part of the Bible fits into the whole flow of Scripture). We are not asking you to master the secondary literature on that particular book (or part of a book).
2. In 'primary document' questions, the focus should fall squarely on explaining the part of the Bible in view. Whilst referring to some secondary literature may help you to answer the question (primarily commentaries, especially the introductory discussions, and dictionary articles), the assessment will be marked first and foremost on the extent to which you display familiarity with and understanding of the biblical text. Where appropriate within your answers, you should seek to briefly make connections to your other theological studies, and also briefly indicate implications for Christian life and thought today.
3. You are generally expected to spend 6-10 hours on a 'Take-Home Exam'. Again, some use of secondary literature is expected, but answers do not need to be heavily footnoted. Your responses should demonstrate that you grasp the message of the particular part of the Old Testament, understand how it fits into the flow of biblical theology, and have some appreciation of how to apply the Old Testament to Christian life and thought today. As is the case with a formal on-site exams, lecture notes and audio recordings of lectures should not ordinarily be footnoted or included in the bibliography of a Take-Home Exam.
4. Always make sure that you ANSWER THE QUESTION! Before you start to write, you may find it helpful to make sure that you can answer the question asked in a couple of sentences, and then take some time to make sure that your answer is structured appropriately.
5. Do note carefully the number of words required for each assessment item, depending on whether you are enrolled for OT302D or OT502D. For full information on what is included in the total word count, see the QTC Handbook section headed Length of Assignments.
