LA004B New Testament Greek B Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit New Testament Greek B. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 2 2019

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the ACT's Academic Misconduct Policy, as well as ACT Late Penalties Policy and Extensions Policy, all of which are available on the ACT website. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the relevant ACT Policies.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays in Coursework Units" (see also the QTC Student Handbook). All essays and assignments should comply with these standards.

Information about this unit

Unit description

This unit completes your introduction to the grammar and vocabulary of the New Testament and begins your introduction to the translation and exegesis of the New Testament. It is Part Two of the basic building block of New Testament study. Like first semester language studies, it requires application and time, but I am sure that you will find it very rewarding.

Wesley Redgen.

Learning Outcomes

LA004B Learning Objectives – Semester 2

On completion of the unit, students will:

Know and understand:

- New Testament Greek grammar and syntax through completing one standard elementary grammar of New Testament Greek
- About 300-600 words of Greek vocabulary
- Grammatical issues that influence translation and the meaning of the text

Be able to:

- Apply grammatical discussions of the Greek New Testament text
- Translate four chapters of the Greek New Testament (eg. Mark 1-4, Philippians) into English
- Discuss translation issues that influence exegetical work

Be in a position to:

- Continue translation and grammatical analysis of Greek New Testament texts
- Identify the interplay between translation and interpretation
- Commence exegesis of the Greek text of the New Testament
- Use aids to understanding the Greek New Testament such as lexicons, grammars, concordances, commentaries and software tools

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

At Undergraduate and Postgraduate levels, LA004A & LA004B can fulfil the language requirements for the Bachelor of Theology and Master of Divinity, and are a necessary prerequisite of any of the Exegetical units based on the Greek Text.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

This is a 4cp unit. Students must have completed LA004A before enrolling in LA004B. Students may not take LA002 with or after this unit.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

The course is organised around three 1 hour contact sessions per week over thirteen weeks. Please be aware ahead of time that this subject requires more work than any other first year subject. It is estimated that a typical student would need to spend a minimum of 10 hours per week on the unit on top of class time; some students will need more.

Most of each week will be occupied with grammar, vocabulary and translation exercises. As the semester progresses less time will be spent on learning new grammar, because reading the New Testament in Greek will occupy increasing amounts of the class time.

Weekly classes

The daily textbook and translation exercises must be completed before the next class, as they will be reviewed in class. This process of attempting the translation, then reviewing your translations is an essential part of the learning process. If you attempt to short-cut the process you will not learn the language properly. If no homework is specifically mentioned on any day, assume the next 5- 10 textbook translation exercises are required.

Over the course of second semester we will translate Mark 1-4. If on any day no homework is specifically mentioned, assume you will need to translate the next 5 verses of Mark on Tuesday or Wednesday night, and the next 10 verses over the weekend.

General advice

There are differing levels of knowing Greek:

1. Understanding the lectures.
2. Being able to apply it to do the home work.
3. Being able to reproduce the content on demand. i.e. know vocabulary, reproduce tables, explain grammar rules etc.

Unless you are constantly up to date at the third level, you will get behind and not do well..

LA004B Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, in accordance with the ACT Late Penalties Policy, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero. Where the assessment is a Take-Home Exam, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 6% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 7 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero.

Your submitted assessment items must also be within 10% of the required word limit, and failure to meet this requirement shall result in a penalty of 10% of the total possible mark being deducted. Please see the QTC Handbook for full details on what is included within your total word count. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

Take-Home Exam on Chapter 2 of Mark. This will be made available on Thursday 12 September via QTC Moodle. Due Date: Thursday 19 September 2019	25%

Guide to Assessments

Homework

This normally consists of exercises taken from Black or selected sentences from Mark's gospel.

If no homework is stated at the end of class, assume an extra 5 verses of translation to be done on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and an extra 10 verses over the weekend.

Two Mid-Semester Tests

The first test will focus on translating Mark 1 with some grammar questions taken from Mark Chapter 1.

The second test will be a Take-Home Exam on Mark Chapter 2, with a focus on grammar in the context of exegesis.

Final Exam Semester 2

The two hour exam at the end of the semester will test the translation exercises in Mark. The main focus of the final two hour exam will be the translation and questions on points of syntax in those passages. The final exam will include an unseen passage.

Learning Resources

ESSENTIAL RESOURCES

The student will require a copy of the textbooks:

Black, David Alan. Learn to Read New Testament Greek. 3rd ed. Nashville: B&H, 2009.

A copy of the Greek New Testament will be needed for the translation exercises. The best one is the Edition produced by the United Bible Societies (4th/5th Ed). If you buy a hard copy try to get one with a dictionary in the back.

OTHER RESOURCES

The translation work in second semester can be done using a simple dictionary or lexicon such as is found at the back of the Bible Societies Greek Testament. However, a student who intends to seriously pursue Greek exegesis should consider obtaining a good lexicon. The most widely recognised is Danker, Fredrick William. A Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature. 3rd ed. Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2000. This is commonly abbreviated to DBAG.

This lexicon will be a standard requirement for all 2nd and 3rd year Greek exegesis units. As it is quite expensive, I recommend that you do not purchase this until you have received your first semester results and have assessed the likelihood of progressing to 2nd and 3rd year in Greek.

Electronic resources:

All of the above are available in electronic form. We will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of electronic and paper forms.
