Jesus and the Gospels

Online Learning Mode

Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit Jesus and the Gospels - Online Learning Mode. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 1 2020

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at the ACT's website: www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the ACT's Academic Misconduct Policy, as well as ACT Late Penalties Policy and Extensions Policy, all of which are available on the ACT's website. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the relevant ACT Policies.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays in Coursework Units" (see also the QTC Student Handbook). All essays and assignments should comply with these standards.

Information about this unit

Unit description

Welcome to the study of the life and teaching of Jesus in the setting of the Gospels. No matter how often we read the Gospels, we always are surprised at some new aspect that emerges from the life of our Lord. I pray that as we progress through this study you will be surprised, challenged and encouraged by what you learn. I am looking forward to being a guide on the journey with you.

This unit entails an introductory study of Jesus' life and ministry against its background of the world of that time, as it is recorded in the Gospels. This involves a study of the cultural, political, religious and social background of the Gospels. The Gospels as pieces of literature are examined to see what we can learn about how they came into being and consequently how we can read them better. We then study the life and ministry of Jesus, particularly as this is set out by Mark's Gospel. Such topics as the Kingdom of God, the person of Jesus, the miracles, the ethics of Jesus, the parables, and the passion and resurrection of Jesus are highlighted.

I trust this will be an enjoyable and profitable time for you.

Nick Brennan.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

The unit is a core unit in the DipTh, DipMin, AssocDegTh, BTh, BMin, GradCertDiv, GradDipDiv or MDiv. An overall understanding of the literature, setting and theology of the Gospels is essential to further detailed study of the Scriptures. A thorough understanding of the life of Christ and how he described his purpose and work is, of course, essential to Christian discipleship and ministry.

At QTC, all students studying a two, three or four year course include this unit within their studies.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

There are no pre-requisites or co-requisites for this unit.

How this unit is organized & what we expect of you

This unit is delivered in online mode and organised in terms of learning activities for you to undertake each week.

Every week we will look at a particular topic (see Unit Timetable), with learning each week involving a combination of reading notes provided by the lecturer, listening to audio material from the lecturer, and readings from the textbook to get you thinking about and applying the material learnt.

Audio recordings and reading notes will normally be provided to you in brief sections on Moodle, to help your learning to be more varied and enjoyable.

During most weeks of the unit you will also participate briefly in discussion on the online forum for the unit, as indicated in the assessment section of this unit outline. Further details on what is expected regarding online forum contributions will be provided in Week 1 of the Semester.

The unit will also involve the completion of three further assessments which are designed not only to assess your learning, but also to help you to deepen your understanding of the text.

You will be expected to read the relevant section of the course textbook (Blomberg) before listening to the audio part of the lectures.

This unit is worth 12 credit points toward your qualification. A 12 credit point unit is considered to require a time commitment averaging 10 hours per week, including lectures. Students are required to complete any set pre-reading, post-reading, ungraded exercises and all assessment tasks by the relevant due date. Please speak with the lecturer as a matter of urgency if you are finding that you need to consistently spend more time than this on NT001.

NT001-512D Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle.

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, in accordance with the ACT Late Penalties Policy, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero. Where the assessment is a Take-Home Exam, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 6% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 7 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero.

Your submitted assessment items must also be within 10% of the required word limit, and failure to meet this requirement shall result in a penalty of 10% of the total possible mark being deducted. Please see the QTC Handbook for full details on what is included within your total word count. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

ASSESSMENT TASK	DESCRIPTION
Forum Participation Approx. 700 words 10% of final grade	On two occasions during the semester, students will be asked to upload a brief 150 word summary of the message of a specific passage within the book/topic we have been studying that week, with the lecturer allocating students to weeks for this task at the end of Week 1. When not scheduled to provide a summary, each student shall, in other weeks, respond briefly in approximately 50 words to the summaries uploaded by other students to the forum. Students will be assessed on their contribution to the forum over ten weeks of Semester. No forum contributions are required in Week 1 or in the weeks when the two primary document studies (see below) are due. In line with ACT attendance requirements, students must contribute in at least eight out of the ten weeks, otherwise they will receive a mark of zero out of ten. A student who does not contribute on at least four out of ten weeks will be deemed not to have attempted this assessment, and will fail the entire unit NT001-512 (Online), since ACT policies require that students must submit all assessments to be eligible for credit for a unit.

Short Response 1 800 words 20% of final grade DUE DATE: Wed 25 Mar	Write an 800 word short response to the following: What is a Gospel, and how does our understanding of this question affect our interpretation of the four Gospels?
Short Response 2 800 words 20% of final grade DUE DATE: Wed 6 May	Write an 800 word short response to the following: Discuss the significance of parables in the ministry of Jesus, according to the Gospels.
Take-Home Exam 2200 words 50% of final grade DUE DATE: Wed 27 May	Students will answer three compulsory set questions, with each answer to be approximately 730 words in length. i.e. 2200 words in total. The questions will be made available via Moodle 7 days before the due date. See the Guide to Assessments in this unit outline for more details.

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

General remarks

All students are expected to avail themselves of the guidelines for written assignments provided in the ACT Handbook (consult the table of contents) and in the QTC Student Handbook section 'Style Requirements for Written Assignments'.

All written work for this course should conform to the guidelines of the SBL Handbook of Style (with the exception of Australian spelling conventions).

Any Hebrew and Greek cited must be typed in a Unicode font; SBL BibLit is commended as one font covering Hebrew, Greek, and Roman Unicode ranges, but is not required. It is freely available from the SBL website: http://sbl-site.org/educational/BiblicalFonts_SBLBibLit.aspx

For full information on what is included in the total word count, see the QTC Handbook section headed Length of Assignments.

The Learning Resources listed in this outline provide a beginning point for research for assessments for this course; students are expected to engage with the works listed there, but are not limited to these resources. The literature on the Gospels is massive, and you are encouraged to consult widely.

Do note carefully the number of words required for each assessment item, depending on whether you are enrolled for NT001-512 or NT001-712.

Forum Participation

Regarding the online participation requirement, we will run on a Wednesday to Wednesday cycle. You will have seven days from the date of the "class" to post any contributions which you would like to make to the forum, if you would like these contributions to go towards your 10% online participation mark. For example, in Week 3, you will be able to contribute comments that "count" from 5pm on the Wednesday of Week 3, until 11:59pm on the Wednesday of Week 4 (I give you a few extra hours to contribute as a bonus rather than an exact seven days!) You are not required to contribute in Week 1 - the formal requirement for online participation will not begin until Week 2.

Weekly topics will be assigned in Week 1 of the unit. When it is not a week where you are listed as having to supply a 150 word (for NT001-512D) or 200 word (for NT001-712D) contribution on the weekly topic, you should give some brief remarks or reflections responding to the students who have posted contributions that week.

In order to receive a mark for forum contributions, you need to post something appropriate on at least eight out of the ten weeks when the forums will run and students will be posting contributions.

For NT001-512 Students, the word count for this assessment is 700 words (i.e. two contributions of 150 words each plus eight responses each of 50 words)

For NT001-712 students the word count for this assessment is 800 words (i.e. two contributions of 200 words each plus eight responses each of 50 words).

What should a forum contribution or post look like? There is no single format or specific explanation that I have. If you are scheduled to contribute a 150/200 word post on any given week, you might like to explore some topic which has come up in the unit materials for that week. Please avoid simply summarising what the Lecturer or the textbook has said - the best posts are those which go a little beyond the unit materials, either to reflect on implications of what we have learnt for today, or to reflect upon ethical/theological or practical Christian questions that arise out of the unit materials. You are not expected to do any additional reading to contribute to your posts (though if you wish to, this would be very welcome). In responding to the posts and contributions of other students, again you may discuss any matters which you think are relevant and potentially interesting, however please do be polite and sensitive to others and try and keep your posts related to the topic for the week.

Those contributing the 150/200 word posts each week should try if possible to contribute their posts to Moodle by the Sunday evening of the weekly cycle, to allow other students at least three days to respond.

Short Response Items

Always make sure that you ANSWER THE QUESTION! Before you start to write, you may find it helpful to make sure that you can answer the question asked in a couple of sentences, and then take some time to make sure that your answer is structured appropriately.

The Short Response items require you to demonstrate a good understanding of the topic raised in each question. You will need to read about the topic in the textbook and in your lecture notes, and in resources on QTC Moodle. Then you should consult other books and journal articles to enhance your grasp of the issues. Where you quote words or ideas from these resources, you should acknowledge their authors in footnotes. Your answer should not be simply a collection of quotations, but should discuss the question 'in conversation' with the ideas of scholars who have written on the topic. Your answer should be concise but as thorough as possible within the number of words permitted.

Take-Home Exam

The Take-Home Exam is about breadth of knowledge and understanding, rather than depth. You have only a small number of words with which to answer each question, and so you should not waste words going into highly specific details, or into any matters which are only indirectly related to the question.

Your main aim in each of your take-home exam answers should be to summarise briefly the major important points in relation to the question set, in a way that directly answers the question. You should answer the questions from what you have learnt in lectures, from the textbook (Blomberg), and a number of other resources. Use of resources beyond the lectures and the textbook will contribute to your mark – but the main thing you will be marked on will be your ability to clearly and accurately give a short answer to the question. You should demonstrate some reasonable sophistication in synthesising lecture, textbook, and additional resources. Higher grades will be allocated to those students who can demonstrate higher level skills, including analysis, evaluation and possibly some creative application. Your answers should argue a case rather than merely listing or describing relevant facts and details. All direct quotations in your answers from books and articles should be footnoted, but there is no need to footnote the lectures.

You are generally expected to spend 6-10 hours on a 'take-home' exam.

Learning Resources

The unit timetable in this unit outline indicates chapters in the textbook for reading each week. The lectures are not designed to provide content that can be found in the textbook. The lectures will assume that the student has completed the reading chapter(s). During the lecture, certain aspects will be emphasised and explained and discussion will be encouraged in order to seek to apply what has been learned to life and understanding.

Journal Articles:

In most of the units you study at QTC, you will be asked to demonstrate your understanding of the subject matter by writing a short response answer, essay, research paper, book review, take-home exam or the like. Your lecturers and the Moderators of the Australian College of Theology will expect to see that you have consulted current academic research in the form of Journal Articles.

Q: So how do you find good journal articles?

A: Search the online Journal Databases

QTC makes available the following Journal Databases which will be useful for finding information for your Short Response answers and Take-Home Exam:

- ATLA Religion Database with ATLA Serials PLUS

ATLA Religion Database with ATLASerials PLUS is the full text version of the ATLA Religion Database (ATLA). This database is a collection of major religion and theology journals selected by some of the major religion scholars in the United States. Coverage of this database dates back to 1949.

- Religion and Philosophy Collection

This database provides extensive full-text coverage of such topics as world religions, major denominations, biblical studies, religious history, epistemology, political philosophy, and philosophy of language, moral philosophy and the history of philosophy.

- EBSCO Ebook Collection

Provides thousands of e-book titles covering a broad range of religious and theological subjects, all with a user-friendly search experience and simple download process.

You can search both databases and the Ebooks at the same time through the same EBSCO Platform. Most journal articles will be available as a PDF which you can read, print or save. Access the databases via the QTC Library Webpage <https://www.qtc.edu.au/students/resources/library/databases/> and login with the username and password provided on Moodle under the QTC Library unit.
