For projects, for domestic and overseas students, fees are charged at a rate of $2520 per 12 credit points (i.e. 12cp project - $2520; 24cp project - $5040; 36cp project - $7560)

The spouse of a current full time (48cp/semester) QTC student studying towards a three or four year degree is entitled to a discount on up to 8 units (96cp) at the following discounted rates:

- 50% subsidy where spouse undertakes studies concurrently with student, or
- 40% subsidy where the spouse undertakes studies in the 3 years following graduation of the student, or
- 25% subsidy where the spouse undertakes studies in years 4 or 5 after graduation of the student, or
- Up to 8 free audit subjects taken either during or up to 5 years following graduation of the student.

In cases where husband and wife are studying concurrently, the student taking the lower number of units in any given semester shall be the recipient of the applicable subsidy.

These conditions apply to the spouse of a full-time overseas three year degree student if allowable under the individual's visa conditions.

Current full time QTC students may audit one unit per year, without having to pay the audit fee.

MTS students living regionally who are in paid vocational ministry roles within QLD, NT or Northern NSW, who have a completed three or four year theological degree (e.g. MDiv, BTh, BD) are eligible for a reduction of $250 off their total fees to offset travel costs.

* Domestic MTh and PhD students who are QTC graduates or full-time ministry workers serving with QLD, NT, or Northern NSW may eligible for a discount. Contact the Registrar for details.

Fee for withdrawing from an intensive unit after attending the classes for the unit is $400, equivalent to an Audit Fee. No refunds are available after the Census Date.
