The Synoptic Gospels

Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit The Synoptic Gospels. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 1 2021

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.acttheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the ACT's Academic Misconduct Policy, as well as ACT Late Penalties Policy and Extensions Policy, all of which are available on the ACT website. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the relevant ACT Policies.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays in Coursework Units" (see also the QTC Student Handbook). All essays and assignments should comply with these standards.

Students should be aware that the delivery of this unit and results awarded are moderated by the ACT. See the ACT "Moderation Policy" and "Moderation Procedure" at www.acttheology.edu.au/documents/ for full details.

Information about this unit

Unit description

This is one of the exegetical units available in the New Testament field. Like all our advanced exegesis units it differs from the New Testament introduction units and Introduction to New Testament Greek in that it takes the knowledge and skills you have learnt and applies them at a deeper level. You will learn to employ exegetical methods of modern critical study to read the Synoptic Gospels. For those who are studying this unit as a follow up to the study of New Testament Greek, you will find it very satisfying to put into practice what you have learned, and to see the fruit of all that study.

The unit will study a sample part of the Synoptic gospels – Luke 19-24. Within our selection of advanced exegesis units, this one focuses on the gospel accounts of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Luke's Gospel takes us straight to the person of Jesus Christ. In these chapters Luke cleverly uses his source material to reveal Jesus in a way that highlights important theological themes and both contrasts and compliments our knowledge of Jesus from the other gospels.

My prayer is that you will find the unit very rewarding.

Wesley Redgen

ACT Census Date

15 March 2021

Students must confirm their enrolment in this unit with the QTC Registrar by Monday 15 March 2021. This is the last day on which you may withdraw from the unit without academic penalty (a Fail), or without being liable for the tuition fees. To make a change in your enrolment you must contact the QTC Registrar in writing at: registrar@qtc.edu.au.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

This unit caters for students studying for the following ACT courses:

DipTh/ AssocDegTh/ BMin/ BTh/:

NT008-612 The Synoptic Gospels (English)

NT009-612 The Synoptic Gospels (Greek)

GradDipDiv/ MDiv / MTS/:

NT008-812 The Synoptic Gospels (English)

NT009-812 The Synoptic Gospels (Greek)

It has been chosen by QTC as a suitable unit because of its focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus. This balances John's gospel where we focus on the incarnation and divinity of Christ. Together they provide a broad understanding of the gospels.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

The co-requisite for NT008-612/812 is successful completion of NT001-512/712 (previously NT301/501).

The co-requisite for NT009-612/812 is successful completion of NT001-512/712 (previously NT301/501).

The pre-requisites for NT009-612/812 are successful completion of LA005-612 and LA006-612 (previously LA004A & LA004B).

How this unit is organised & what we expect of you

This unit is worth 12 credit points towards your degree. A 12cp unit is considered to require an average time commitment of around 10 hours per week across all of the teaching and assessment weeks. Please speak with the lecturer as a matter of urgency if you are finding that you need to consistently spend more time than this on NT008/NT009.

The unit is taught week by week over 13 weeks of Semester. There are three classes each week, of 50 minutes duration. Two of these classes are shared by NT008 and NT009 students. For the third class, NT008 and NT009 students have separate classes on the semester timetable.

Students are expected to read through the Gospel of Luke before the first lecture, and again at least once throughout the 13-week semester.

NT009 students are expected to come to Greek exegesis class having made a reasonable attempt to translate the assigned verses (e.g., all Greek words translated, some understanding of how the syntax of the sentences work to produce meaning).

NT008-612 (English) Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle.

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, in accordance with the ACT Late Penalties Policy, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero. Where the assessment is a Take-Home Exam, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 6% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 7 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero.

Your submitted assessment items must also be within 10% of the required word limit, and failure to meet this requirement shall result in a penalty of 10% of the total possible mark being deducted. Please see the QTC Handbook for full details on what is included within your total word count. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

See Guide to Assessments (below, on page 15ff) for further guidance on each assessment task.

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

General remarks

All students are expected to avail themselves of the guidelines for written assignments provided in the ACT Handbook (consult the table of contents) and in the QTC Student Handbook section 'Style Requirements for Written Assignments'.

All written work for this unit should conform to the guidelines of the SBL Handbook of Style (with the exception of Australian spelling conventions).

Any Hebrew and Greek cited must be typed in a Unicode font; SBL BibLit is commended as one font covering Hebrew, Greek, and Roman Unicode ranges, but is not required. It is freely available from the SBL website: http://sbl-site.org/educational/BiblicalFonts_SBLBibLit.aspx

Do note carefully the number of words required for each assessment item, depending on whether you are enrolled for NT008-612/NT009-612 or NT008-812/NT009-812. For full information on what is included in the total word count, see the QTC Handbook section headed Length of Assignments.

The Learning Resources listed in this outline provide a beginning point for research for assessments for this unit. Students are expected to engage with the works listed there but are not limited to these resources. The literature on Luke's Gospel is massive, and you are encouraged to consult widely.

Assessment 1: Critical Book Review (All students)

Each book is an examination of a particular issue in Lukan scholarship or gospel hermeneutics. This assignment is an exercise in engaging and evaluating a scholar's handling of the issue in the book you have chosen. The books come from a variety of different theological positions. This assignment is NOT asking you to give a summary of the book. It is asking you to analyse the strengths and weaknesses of the book's treatment of Luke's Gospel. Your paper should demonstrate that you are engaging both Luke's gospel and the book. While the review is not asking you to read far beyond the assigned text and Luke's Gospel, you would be wise to consult published reviews of the book. (Do not just accept the reviewer's point of view. The review may have missed things, misunderstood, or even been unfair.)

Below are some examples of the type of questions you may wish to think about. Not all questions are as relevant as others for a particular book. Part of the exercise is to establish which questions are most relevant for analysing your book.

Is the book's topic central to Luke or focused on a minor issue?

Is the book helpful for understanding this issue in Luke's gospel? Why? Why not?

Does the book help you understand Luke better as a whole? Or does it sidetrack from the main issues?

Is its' contribution valuable? Were any parts unhelpful or even problematic?

Is the argument convincing? Why? Why not?

Would you recommend this book to others? Why? Why not? To whom?

The paper should be written in prose i.e. not dot points. There should be an introduction and a conclusion. The main body of the review should methodically address strengths and weaknesses, keeping in mind questions such as those above.

The library has all the books, either in hard copy or eBook format. Some eBooks have unlimited access. Some have limited numbers. You also have the option of purchasing your own copy. See Semester 1, 2021 Textbook List for details

Pastoral rationale for this assessment: Regardless of the topic of your chosen book, this assignment is designed for your pastoral development. Firstly, in pastoral ministry you will always be required to evaluate what people are saying about the scripture - sometimes, in order to encourage them, even to learn from them; sometimes in order to correct and guide them. This assignment is designed to improve the skill of encouraging, correcting and guiding. Secondly, we wish to expose you to the value of books like these for understanding a book of the bible, so that you will consider such reading as part of your ongoing development in ministry post-college.

Assessment 2: Exegesis Major Paper (All students)

Purpose:

1. To assess your ability to exegete the chosen passage in detail and critically interact with scholarship on that passage.
2. To assess your ability to build a sustainable argument for how you believe the passage should be interpreted.
3. To assess your ability to apply the text in a way that flows organically from the exegesis.

The main focus is on purposes 1 and 2. Purpose 3 is important but warrants less focus in this assessment.

There are three parts to this task:

- A. Introduction, Setting and Structure
- B. Translation, Analysis and Synthesis
- C. Application

A. Introduction, Setting and Structure:

You need to make a judgement call on how many words to dedicate to each of the points below. The answer may be different for each passage. The underlying question is how much you need to discuss this background issue in order to shed light on the exegesis of your selected passage. If it is critical to understand the passage, it should have more words. If it does not really impact your passage, then it warrants fewer words. The secret is not to spend any more words on this section than you need to. Save words for the exegesis section.

- Introduction: a brief statement of intent or purpose.
- Mention the authorship and defend it if controverted.
- Discuss the historical setting of the passage (time, place, occasion of writing and recipients).
- Discuss the canonical setting of the passage (where it fits into Luke, and perhaps where it fits in the wider framework of the NT).

- Describe the immediate context of your passage and explain and defend its boundaries as a self-contained unit of Scripture.
- You may need to discuss critical questions about which is the best text of the passage, especially if you are studying Luke in Greek.
- Describe the structure of the passage and its literary features, including its literary genre (narrative, parable, discourse, poetry, etc.).

B. Translation, Analysis and Synthesis: This is the heart of your task.

Translation and Grammatical Remarks:

- Translate the passage, taking textual variants into account.
- Study carefully key words or phrases, historically and within the present context.
- Provide a detailed grammatical discussion of significant issues (though NOT simply the parsing of individual words).
- Attempt to give a solution for any grammatical and exegetical problems.
- Remember that your structural outline should provide the basic outline of your approach to the passage.
- The conclusions that you have drawn from your discussion of critical questions should be incorporated here.

Analysis of the Passage:

- Give a faithful exposition of the meaning of the passage, on the basis of all the preceding work.
- Compare or contrast this passage with other passages that cover the same or similar topics.

Synthesis and Conclusion:

- Summarise the message of the passage.
- Outline any major Biblical themes that emerge from the passage.
- The synthesis will often involve the discussion of matters that first emerged in the structural outline.

C. Application:

This section is not required to be long. Make it brief. It should flow from the exegesis above.

- How is this passage calling the reader to respond?
- How does this passage challenge our culture?
- How does this passage challenge the human heart?

Your paper should include a bibliography in the usual SBL format. See the SBL Handbook of Style in the Library and as an eBook.

NT008-612/812 Assessment 3: Take Home Exam

These questions will assess your understanding of the lectures and readings covered in the classes that were dedicated to those taking the subject in the English text. The questions will be similar to the type of questions we discussed in class but they will be aimed beyond knowledge of the content covered. They will extend to your ability to apply the principles discussed.

The answers need to be written in condensed essay format, with appropriate referencing. While some research is encouraged, the heart of the task is to apply the principles discussed to the text.

NT009-612/812 Assessment 3: Six online Greek tests

Although you will only be assessed for 6 weeks out of 13, you will not know whether any week is being assessed until after we have covered it in class. It will be released the next day after class and will be due before the following week's class.

Although it is accessible for a week, you only have 1 hour to do the test. This should be plenty of time if you know the passage before you log on. If you do not know the passage, it will not be enough time. Therefore, before you log on to do the test, revise your notes for the passage. Make sure you have any books or software handy (and open) that you may wish to consult as you write.

The key to success is to translate each passage each week before class. Then use class to review and refine your understanding. Revise grammar and vocab as they arise in the passage.

The focus of these tests is to assess your understanding of the grammar, and your ability to use the grammar for exegesis.

Students exegeting from the Greek text will also require the following:

The Greek New Testament (4th or 5th ed, United Bible Societies)

Danker, Greek English lexicon (3rd edition = BDAG) (University of Chicago)

The books required for review are not required to be purchased, but you may wish to. Most of them are expensive and specialized on an important, but narrow topic. Once you have harvested the message, you probably won't ever read it again. However, some may be useful after college. These have been marked with the following code:

Re-readable = it would pay to re-read this in ministry.

Sharable = a good resource to share with the more serious thinkers in your church.

Other Useful Reference Books:

Daniel B Wallace, Greek Grammar beyond the basics. (Zondervan, 1996). Anyone interested in continuing to grow in his or her understanding of NT Greek needs access to a book of this kind and this one will be used during the unit.

John Alsup, An index to the revised Bauer-Arndt-Gingrich Greek Lexicon, (Zondervan, 1981). A great time saver and help. If a Greek word is mentioned in BDAG, this index takes you to the place where it is cited for that verse.

Nathan E Han, A parsing guide to the Greek New Testament, (Herald Press, 1971). Gives a verse-by-verse parsing of all verbs and related words. It is a bit simpler than an Analytical concordance, but does not include non-verb forms.

Bruce M Metzger, A textual commentary on the Greek New Testament, UBS 1971. This gives the reasoning behind the choice of textual variants in the UBS Greek NT and students will need to consult it for textual comment. There is no need to buy a copy, as multiple copies are available in the library.
