Unit Outline

About this Unit Outline

This unit outline contains information essential to finding your way around the unit Introduction to Biblical Interpretation – Online Learning Mode. It provides a structure for your learning, giving details of lecture topics, assessment requirements, and key resources.

SEMESTER 2 2021

Important notice

While every care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the information given below, it is the personal responsibility of each student to check the current ACT Handbook, copies of which may be found in the Library or online at www.actheology.edu.au

It is very important that students plan their time carefully to ensure that reading and especially assignments receive adequate attention and so as to prevent a bottleneck of work at the end of the semester.

It is very important that all quoted material in assignments be properly footnoted and acknowledged. The attention of students is drawn to the ACT's Academic Misconduct Policy, as well as ACT Late Penalties Policy and Extensions Policy, all of which are available on the ACT website. Failure to comply with the standards required will incur penalties as outlined in the relevant ACT Policies.

The attention of students is also drawn to the section in the current ACT Handbook, headed "Guidelines for Essays in Coursework Units" (see also the QTC Student Handbook). All essays and assignments should comply with these standards.

Students should be aware that the delivery of this unit and results awarded are moderated by the ACT. See the ACT "Moderation Policy" and "Moderation Procedure" at www.actheology.edu.au/documents/ for full details.

Information about this unit

Unit description

'Introduction to Biblical Interpretation' is the foundation of everything we seek to do at QTC. This unit aims to go 'back to basics' to ensure that everyone is handling the Bible in a helpful and responsible way before we throw ourselves into the detail of studying the text in earnest. In this unit, you will be introduced to a way of reading and studying the Bible, which is coherent, flexible and will shape the way in which you interpret the Bible in every context – whether reading it for personal study or studying the text in order to teach it to others.

We will examine in turn the importance of History, Literature and (Biblical) Theology in reading the Bible, before giving some attention to the way in which this will affect how we seek to communicate the message of any text in the context of the flow of the whole Bible. After completing this unit, every student should be equipped to understand how the Bible fits together, how Jesus Christ is the key to all the Scriptures and how to approach the task of interpreting any part of the Bible.

ACT Census Date

30 July 2021

Students must confirm their enrolment in this unit with the QTC Registrar by Friday 30 July 2021. This is the last day on which you may withdraw from the unit without academic penalty (a Fail), or without being liable for the tuition fees. To make a change in your enrolment you must contact the QTC Registrar in writing at: registrar@qtc.edu.au.

Learning Outcomes

BB008-506 Learning Outcomes

On completion of this unit, the student should have achieved the following learning outcomes:

Be able to:

1. Describe the main genres of the biblical writings.
2. Demonstrate skill in applying methods of biblical interpretation.
3. Present organised evidence-based perspectives on their biblical writings and their interpretation

Be in a position to:

1. Relate perspectives from 'Introduction to Biblical Interpretations' to contemporary Christian living and ministry contexts.

BB008-706 Learning Outcomes

On completion of this unit, the student should have achieved the following learning outcomes:

Know and understand

1. Demonstrate functional knowledge and understanding of the biblical writings and methods of interpretation.

Be able to:

1. Discuss the main genres of the biblical writings.
2. Explore the relationship of biblical theology to other related disciplines.
3. Present critical evidence-based perspectives on their biblical writings and their interpretation

Be in a position to:

1. Apply perspectives from 'Introduction to Biblical Interpretation' to contemporary Christian living and ministry.

How this Unit Contributes to the Course

We are very aware that our students start at very different places – some come to us straight from studying another course, whereas others have been in the workplace for years and are petrified about the challenge of tertiary level study! But we are also mindful of the fact that our students come from a variety of church backgrounds and have had very different spiritual journeys. As if that were not all, some of us have (often unconsciously) picked up some very bad habits over the years when it comes to reading and studying the Bible! That is why 'Introduction to Biblical Interpretation' is very deliberately set up as a 'back to basics' unit, in which we strip away our presuppositions and rebuild from the ground up, in order to ensure that every student is well-equipped to study ensuing units (and to serve well in the church) over the years ahead.

Pre-requisites and Co-requisites

There are no pre-requisites for this unit.

Prior to 2020, this unit was content was delivered under the codes RYB31 and RBY51.

Unit exclusions: BB006-512, BB006-712.

How this unit is organised & what we expect of you

This unit is delivered in online mode over 6 weeks with an extra week at the end of the teaching weeks for completing the final assessment. The start date of this unit is 12 July and it will conclude on 3 September, the day the Exegetical Summaries are due. This unit is organised in terms of learning activities for you to undertake each week.

Every week we will look at the topics described in the Unit Timetable, with learning each week involving a combination of reading notes provided by the lecturer, listening to audio / watching video material from the lecturer, short readings from relevant books and articles, and short non-assessed exercises to get you thinking about and applying the material learnt.

Video / audio recordings and reading notes will normally be provided to you in brief sections, to help your learning to be more varied and enjoyable.

During most weeks of the unit you will also participate briefly in discussion on the online forum for the unit, as indicated in the assessment section of this unit outline: further details on what is expected regarding online forum contributions will be provided in Week 1 of the Semester.

The unit will also involve the completion of two further assessments which are designed not only to assess your learning, but also to help you to deepen your understanding of the text.

This unit is worth 6 credit points towards your degree. A 6cp unit is considered to require an average time commitment of around 5 hours per week across all of the teaching and assessment weeks. Please speak with the lecturer as a matter of urgency if you are finding that you need to consistently spend more time than this on BB008.

Students are required to listen to all audios / watch all videos, complete any set pre-reading and complete any assessment tasks by the relevant due date.

Week	Lecture Topic
Week 1 12 July	Learning to Read – why it’s as easy as watching Netflix
Week 2 19 July	You know what I mean? What the text is (and isn’t) saying
Week 3 26 July	King Context (thinking local, historical and biblical)
Week 4 2 August	The Power of Words (and the power of the Word) – why exegesis matters
Week 5 9 August	The Text and the Message – on Theology and Application
Week 6 16 August	Putting it all together – including dealing with hard passages and how to spot ‘the real thing’
Assessment Weeks: 23 August – 3 September

BB008-506 Assessments

Assessments are submitted online via Moodle by 11.55pm on the due date (with the exception of timed online quizzes and onsite exams). If you experience difficulty submitting due to internet issues close to 11.55pm, please email registrar@qtc.edu.au explaining the issue. Attach a copy of your assessment and a screen shot of the folder in which your document is saved to show that you have not made changes after the due time.

In order to pass the unit, you must submit all assessment pieces and attain a mark of at least 50% for the unit as a whole.

Unless an extension has been applied for and granted in accordance with the Policy found in the QTC Handbook, where a student submits an assessment past its due date, in accordance with the ACT Late Penalties Policy, the assessment marks will be reduced at the rate of 3% of the total possible marks for the assessment item per calendar day, up to 14 days late, after which point the mark awarded shall be zero.

Your submitted assessment items must also be within 10% of the required word limit, and failure to meet this requirement shall result in a penalty of 10% of the total possible mark being deducted. See the QTC Handbook for full details on what is included within your total word count. Please also note that footnotes in their entirety should not exceed 25% of the prescribed essay length. A 10% penalty of the final grade applies if footnotes are more than 25% of the prescribed essay length. QTC seeks to prepare you for ministry, and in ministry delivering presentations on time and within an acceptable length are essential skills.

Guide to Assessments

What are we looking for?

General remarks

All students are expected to avail themselves of the guidelines for written assignments provided in the ACT Handbook (consult the table of contents) and in the QTC Student Handbook section 'Style Requirements for Written Assignments'.

All written work for this unit should conform to the guidelines of the SBL Handbook of Style (with the exception of Australian spelling conventions).

Any Hebrew and Greek cited must be typed in a Unicode font; SBL BibLit is commended as one font covering Hebrew, Greek, and Roman Unicode ranges, but is not required. It is freely available from the SBL website: http://sbl-site.org/educational/BiblicalFonts\_SBLBibLit.aspx

Do note carefully the number of words required for each assessment item, depending on whether you are enrolled for BB008-507 or BB08=. For full information on what is included in the total word count, see the QTC Handbook section headed Length of Assignments.

Online Forum Contributions

The initial post is designed to reflect our various starting points at the beginning of the unit, and will also serve to introduce participants in the unit to one another. Subsequent interactions will be the result of week-to-week direction and questions which arise.

Review Essay

There are two main purposes in the review essay. Please make sure you (a) summarise the relevant content of the book and (b) reflect on how this content should shape our practice.

Exegetical Summary Pieces

1. It is important to remember that these assessments are designed to test if you have grasped the basic principles of interpretation (looking at the historical context, appreciating the kind of literature we are reading and how that works, and then how this part of the Bible fits into the whole flow of Scripture). We are not asking you to come up with the definitive (or exhaustive) interpretation of any particular Bible passage. Our concern is to make sure that you are approaching the Bible properly and are aware of the issues and challenges of interpreting the text, rather than testing your understanding of any given text per se.
2. Students often ask 'How many other books should I refer to?' and 'How many footnotes or references do you want to see?' The short answer is that for these assessments, the primary goal is to ensure that you are using the right strategies in interpretation, rather than interacting with others who have written on the particular text. The assessments will be marked on the basis of your method and approach, rather than whether or not you are aware of how others have approached the text in the past. However, it will be necessary for you to refer to books (generally commentaries) for some help on historical details, literary structure and perhaps theological issues. Where you glean help from these sources, you should include a footnote, and also add the title to your bibliography.

3. In the final session of the unit, you will be shown a couple of representative examples of what we are expecting!

Learning Resources

Set Texts

BB008-506 students should purchase:

Schreiner, T. The King in his beauty: a Biblical theology of the Old and New Testaments. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 2013. [available as an EBSCO eBook and Perlego eBook accessible through QTC Library]

JOURNAL ARTICLES

In most of the units you study at QTC, you will be asked to demonstrate your understanding of the subject matter by writing a research paper, essay, take-home exam or the like. Your lecturers and the Moderators of the Australian College of Theology will expect to see that you have consulted current academic research in the form of journal articles.

Q: So how do you find good journal articles?

A: Search the online Journal Databases

QTC makes available the following Journal Databases which will be useful for finding information for your assessments:

- ATLASerials Plus – available via EBSCO

ATLASerials Plus is the full text version of the ATLA Religion Database (ATLA). This database is a collection of major religion and theology journals selected by some of the major religion scholars in the United States. Coverage of this database dates back to 1949.

- Religion and Philosophy Collection

This database provides extensive full-text coverage of such topics as world religions, major denominations, biblical studies, religious history, epistemology, political philosophy, and philosophy of language, moral philosophy and the history of philosophy.

- JSTOR

JSTOR provides full-text access to journal articles as well as eBooks. It includes theological journal titles such as the Harvard Theological Review and other titles not found in ATLASerials Plus or the Religion and Philosophy Collection.

Most journal articles will be available as a PDF which you can read, print or save.
