

The successful candidate will:

- Qualify as an overseer according to 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9 and be known for maturity of faith and Christian character;
- Have demonstrated by their life and teaching that they are well qualified to help lead and teach the church;
- Be a mature Christian with a deep love for God, his people, and the lost;
- Have a good standing in a local church and be living a lifestyle consistent with Christian standards of holiness;
- Possess deep personal integrity;
- Be humble and teachable;
- Have a passion to see people follow Jesus whole-heartedly;
- Be proficient in explaining and applying the Bible to people in their everyday lives· possess excellent interpersonal skills;
- Work well in forming strategy, planning and leading others;
- Be able to recruit and train ministry leaders;
- Work well in a team ministry environment;
- Be willing to commit to the theological convictions, vision and values of the Branch;
- Be a shining example of what it means to follow Jesus in both public and private life, modelling habits of Gospel transformation including the regular reading of the Word, prayer, repentance and faith.